NEW QUESTION: 1

Your network contains an Active Directory domain named contoso.com. The domain contains a server named Server1 that runs Windows Server 2016. A user named User1 is a member of the local Administrators group. Server1 has the AppLocker rules configured as shown in follow:

Rule1 and Rule2 are configured as shown in the following table:

You verify that User1 is unable to run App2.exe on Server1. Which changes will allow User1 to run D:\\Folder1\\Program.exe and D:\\Folder2\\App2.exe? Choose Two.

- A. User1 can run D:\\Folder2\\App2.exe if App2.exe is moved to another folder
- B. User1 can run D:\\Folder2\\App2.exe if App2.exe is upgraded
- C. User1 can run D:\\Folder1\\Program.exe if Program.exe is updated
- D. User1 can run D:\\Folder2\\App2.exe if App2.exe is renamed
- E. User1 can run D:\\Folder1\\Program.exe if Program.exe is moved to another folder
- F. User1 can run D:\\Folder1\\Program.exe if Program.exe is renamed

Answer: B,E

Explanation:

https://technet.microsoft.com/en-us/library/ee449492\(v=ws.11\).aspx.aspx)

For "D:\\Folder1\\Program.exe", it is originally explicitly denied due to Rule1, when moving the "Program.exe" out of "D:\\Folder1\\", it does not match Rule1.

Assume that "Program.exe" is moved to "D:\\Folder2", it matches an Explicit Allow rule for group "BUILTIN \\Administrators" which User1 is a member of, therefore A is correct.

For "App2",exe, it matches a Explicit Deny rule using its File Hash (created File content), no matter where you move it to, or how you rename it, it would still match Rule2.

Only changing the file content of App2.exe would let it no longer match the explicit deny hash-based rule "Rule2".

By upgrading its version and content, it will generate a new hash. so F is correct.

NEW QUESTION: 2

Scenario: A company has a network with a central server and several client computers. The server is running Windows Server 2012 R2 and the client computers are running Windows 8.1. The server has a Group Policy Object (GPO) that is linked to the network and is configured to set the desktop background for all client computers. The GPO is configured to set the desktop background to a specific image. However, some client computers are not displaying the correct desktop background. The network administrator has verified that the GPO is linked to the network and that the client computers are in the correct domain. The administrator has also verified that the client computers are not displaying any error messages. The administrator is unsure why some client computers are not displaying the correct desktop background.

A. The client computers are not displaying the correct desktop background because the GPO is not linked to the network.

B. The client computers are not displaying the correct desktop background because the GPO is not configured to set the desktop background for all client computers.

C. The client computers are not displaying the correct desktop background because the GPO is not configured to set the desktop background for the correct domain.

D. The client computers are not displaying the correct desktop background because the GPO is not configured to set the desktop background for the correct client computers.

Answer: D
