NEW QUESTION: 4

Which network device does NTP authenticate?

- A. Only the time source
- B. Only the client device
- C. The firewall and the client device
- D. The client device and the time source

Answer: A

Explanation:

You can configure the device to authenticate the time sources to which the local clock is synchronized. When you enable NTP authentication, the device synchronizes to a time source only if the source carries one of the authentication keys specified by the ntp trusted-key command. The device drops any packets that fail the authentication check and prevents them from updating the local clock. NTP authentication is disabled by default.
