NEW QUESTION: 2

You are the manager for a governmental portfolio aiming to restructure the roads in your country. Having a large number of stakeholders including the public, you know that you will be managing the communication closely and that the governance board and the stakeholders would want to check on the progress and performance frequently. For this you have developed a robust communication management plan. What is expected to be found in this plan?

- A. Introduction (goals, objectives, strategies, and tactics)
- B. Organization areas and organization structure
- C. Communication objectives
- D. Portfolio structure including a listing of the various portfolio components and other work

Answer: C

Which three are valid modes for a switch port used as a VLAN trunk? (Choose three.)

- A. blocking
- B. forwarding
- C. auto
- D. desirable
- E. on
- F. transparent

Answer: C,D,E

Explanation:

These are the different types of trunk modes:

ON: This mode puts the port into permanent trunk mode and negotiates to convert the link into a trunk link. The port becomes a trunk port even if the adjacent port does not agree to the change.

OFF: This mode puts the port into permanent non-trunk mode and negotiates to convert the link into a non-trunk link.

The port becomes a non-trunk port even if the adjacent port does not agree to the change.

Desirable: This mode causes the port to actively attempt to convert the link into a trunk link. The port becomes a trunk port if the adjacent port is set to on, desirable, or auto mode.

Auto: This mode enables the port to convert the link into a trunk link. The port becomes a trunk port if the adjacent port is set to on or desirable mode. This is the default mode for Fast and Gigabit Ethernet ports.

Nonegotiate: This mode puts the port into permanent trunk mode, but does not allow the port to generate Dynamic Trunking Protocol (DTP) frames. The adjacent port must be configured manually as a trunk port to establish a trunk link.
